Preliminary Itinerary

66th Annual Battlefield Tour – Shenandoah Valley - 1864

April 14th – April 17th 2016

For its 66th annual battlefield tour, the Civil War Round Table of Chicago will be visiting the lower, or northern, end of the Shenandoah Valley. The focus of this tour will be the 1864 Valley Campaign which has never served as the single theme of trip for the Round Table to this region. This tour is scheduled two weeks earlier than is usually the case and will be Thursday, April 14 through Sunday, April 17, 2016. The base hotel will be the Hilton Garden Inn, 120 Wingate Drive, Winchester, Virginia 22601. Check-in will be Wednesday, April 13. Dinner is on your own as are the breakfasts. Breakfast is available at the hotel as well as the McDonalds next door. One bus will be at Dulles International Airport and act as a shuttle to the Hilton Garden Inn in Winchester.

The lead guide for this tour will be Colonel Edwin C. Bearss, Historian Emeritus for the National Park Service. The co-guide will be Eric Campbell, Chief Ranger and Head of Interpretation at Cedar Creek National Historical Park. The tour will utilize two busses and refreshments will be available. Busses load at 7:30a.m. and depart promptly at 8:00a.m.

Thursday, April 14

New Market, Cool Spring, Rutherford's Farm, Second Kernstown

Friday, April 15

Berryville, Third Winchester

Saturday, April 16

Fisher's Hill, Tom's Brook, Cedar Creek

Sunday, April 17

Cedar Creek, Belle Grove Mansion

Box lunches will be available at the hotel upon our return. One bus will return to Dulles International Airport.
